Macro-Economic Analysis of Mexico

2 India Mexico Relations

India and Mexico have had strong diplomatic ties since 1950 – it was among the first countries in Latin America and Caribbean to establish diplomatic relations with an Independent India. Taking forward their congruity, the two countries established 'Privileged Partnership' during President Calderon's state visit to India in 2007.

The two countries have exchanged many visits at the level of Head of State, Ministers and Officials. The countries' bilateral engagements include a Joint Commission (now at the level of Foreign Ministers), a High-Level Group on Trade, Investment and Economic Cooperation, Foreign Office Consultations, and an array of bilateral agreements including ones for investment promotion and protection, double taxation avoidance, extradition, air services, and such others.

The Indian community (PIOs/NRIs) in Mexico is around 10,000 with about one fifth of them concentrated in Mexico City, and the rest spread out among Guadalajara, Monterrey, Cuernavaca, Queretaro, etc.
